Gitam Rover Club, Core Member

Oct 2022 – Aug 2023

GRC is a student club that brings together diverse disciplines to design and construct a Martian rover, while exploring robotics technology to find creative solutions to real-world challenges.

Hydrogravitricity, Research fellow

May 2022 – Sep 2022

HydroGravitricity is an early-stage startup that aspires to alleviate the global water crisis. In order to avoid wasting this important resource, our rainwater filter and quality and quantity monitoring system provides customers with real-time information on the quality of the rainwater collected in large architectures like gated communities (which on an average is about 7.7 Million Litres of water annually per community). Rainwater quality and quantity can be seen on an easy-to-understand dashboard that notifies customers via smartphone notifications when either quality or quantity is problematic
